IMPORTANT DECISION .- In the Circuit Court of this county, yesterday, in the case of Hooe vs. Tilston, in which the plaintiff sued for the recovery of city property sold during the war, under a decree of Judge Underwood, Judge Thomas decided that by the provisions of the Constitution of the United States, Congress could not ferfeit more than the life estate of the party charged with the offences stated in the act of Congress providing for the confiscation of the property of persons engaged in the rebellion, and that as Daniel F. Hooe, against whose property the proceedings were instituted, had departed this life, the plaintiff, his devisee, was entitled to the recovery of the property. An appeal from this decision was taken, and the case will be decided by the Supreme Court of the United States.

SQUIRRELS AS CURRENCY. - We are inform ed by a friend-a resident of Prince William county, in this State-that though the general impecuniousity pervading the entire South, also infests his county, yet that the people there will have a currency of some description, and as greenbacks have failed them, have resorted to squirrels as a circulating medium. He mentioned the fact that upon a late occasion, he was asked at a grocery, in a village in his county, by a friend, to join him in a drink, after taking which, instead of money, his friend deliberately drew out of his over-coat pecket two dead squirrels, and depositing them on the counter, walked away, as though the soup making animals were the recognized currency of the county.

NOVEL CASE. - During the session of the term of the Circuit Court of this county, which closes this evening, a novel case occurred. A negro named Lewis H. Harris, charged with committing a rape upon Mrs. Murtaugh, living between this city and Washington, was identified in Court by that lady as the person who committed the offence, and would certainly have been condemned had not the evidence of the Mayor of this city, who heard the confession of the Lyles murderers, who were hung in Marlboro' last month, been admitted, and who stated, on his examination, that a remarkable likeness existed between the man undergoing trial and the murderer Plaiter, who was exccuted. The prisoner was discharged.

MR. BALDWIN'S LECTURE. - Oliver P. Baldwin, Esq., delivered last night, in Liberty Hall, to a select and highly appreciative audience, a lecture on Humbugs, for the benefit of the Alexandria Christian Association. The subject was handled in a masterly manner-the rich vain of satirical humor prevading his and at night by the Rev. Mr. McCampbell. delineation of the impositions now passing current, being keenly relished by those who were so fortunate as to be present. Among Mr. Baldwin's listeners last night, were Judge Henry W. Thomas, Governor William Smith and the Hon. John S. Pendleton.

THE MARKET.-The market this morning was tolerably well supplied with meats, poultry, game and vegetables, and there were a few inferior fish at the fish stands. Best cuts of beef sold for 16 cents per pound. Mutton sold at 12 to 15 cents per pound, according to quality, and pork at 15 cents per pound. Salt beef was selling at from 12 to 15 cents per pound -Dressed hogs were dull ar $7 per hundred pounds. The price of poultry, vegetables and game, to the astonishment of purchasers, sustains itself remarkab'y well.

CASE DECIDED. - In the case of James S. French, by his trustee, vs. J. B. Stuart, which was to set aside the sale of the plaintiff's residence on the northern end of Royal street in this city, made during the war by a trustee appointed by the County Court, Judge Thomas to-day decided that the sale was illegal. The principal involved in this case is the same as that which exists in the case of the Washington and Alexandria railroad company, against the Washington, Georgetown and Alexandria railroad company which is yet to be decided.

DANCING SCHOOL.—Professor Joab Osborn opened the first session of his dancing school Yesterday evening, which was attended by many of our young men, who are desirous of learning the graceful art. We understand that Mr. Osborn has a large class of young ladies, and that he intends giving an occasional soirce a danser, for the benefit of both parties.

TENNESSON-ENCORE. -Could our cotemporary of the Charlottesville Chronicle have been conveyed here yesterday, on a telegraphic wire, or in any other manner agrecable to himself, and been seated with us in our retired sanctum, we know what his delight would have been, to see and share with us, what Tennesson sent us from his restaurant, in compliment, no doubt, to the Chronicle's recent notice. We were, therefore, the "vicarious" recipient of the treat; -oysters than which

"Finer nor fatter Ne'er lay on the shell or smoked on the platter,' with all the needful accompaniements, "in the best style," so graphically described by our Charlottesville friend-such as the cool, crisp celery, the fresh butter. We sighed when we looked at this elegant repast, to think that our "confrere" was not present to enjoy it-so, all we could do, and the best we could do, was to exclaim, Vive Tennesson,-Encore Tennesson -and when he next sends us a treat may the | bed of a considerable amount of money. Charlottesville Chronicle be "there."

JAIL INSPECTION .-- Dr. Gibson, George E. French, J. B. Smoot and the Mayor, who were appointed by the County Court to inspect the condition of the jail, made an examination of that prison on Tuesday last, and reported favorably upon the manner in which its affairs are conducted, and the cleanliness with which it is kept. They recommended that a new stairway be constructed leading into the jail yard, and that the outside wall be raised two feet higher, and have a new coping.

Run Off. - A pair of horses attached to a carriage, belonging to Mr. Broughton, took fright on King street, near Pitt, about 21/2 o'clock this evening, and run at full speed down the street, until near the wharf, where they were caught by some citizens. There were two ladies and a gentleman in the carriage who escaped with a fright. The driver was knocked down but not much injured. The horses were trightened by a dog fight.

Two Trains Daily.-The convention of railroad managers, lately assembled in Washington, for the purpose of securing through and uninterrupted connection between New York and New Orleans, has adjourned, and we understand two passenger trains daily will be commenced on the Orange and Alexandria railroad during next week.

BRIDGE CONDEMNED .- We are informed that the Bridge Inspector of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad inspected the railroad bridge over the Potomac river this morning, and pronounced it unsafe for the passage of my Dyeing Establishment, on the first day of entire trains. It is supposed that in future the | January, 1867, which have been there uncalled cars only, without the locomotive, will be al- for over three months, will be sold on that day lowed to run over it.

RESIGNATION. - We understand that Mr. | ter that time. George W. Jamieson, has resigned his situation as Secretary of the Alexandria Water Company. Mr. Jamieson's qualifications for the position he held are acknowledged to be of the highest character, and the company will sustain great inconvenience by his resignation.

----BEHIND THE AGE .- We understand that his honor Judge Thomas yesterday decided, in a case before him, that "the Constitution and the laws passed in pursuance thereof, are still the laws of the land." We are afraid the Judge does not read the proceedings of Congress!

RICHARDS, THE LYLES MURDERER. - A man bearing all the resemblance to Henry Richards alias Richardson, who is charged with the murder of Wm. Lyles, of Prince George's county, Maryland, has been arrested in Norfolk and is now awaiting identity.

FAIR.-It has been determined by the managers of the ladies' fair now in progress at the Assembly Rooms, to continue its nightly attractions until next Saturday the 15th instant. Many attend this fair, and all who do so are pleased with its enjoyments.
